Meet Tammy Tutterow You know we always work to find you great Celebrity Teachers...and I think we have done it again!!

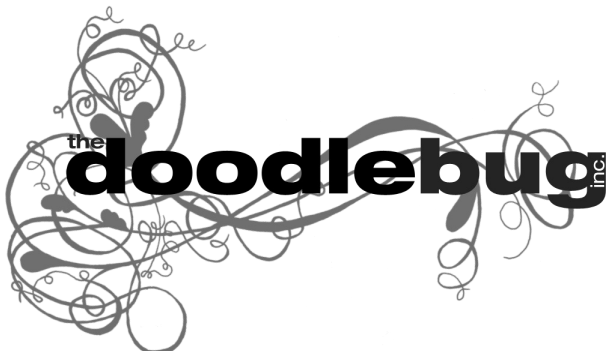

I am a lifelong artist and crafter. My mother was a professional artist for many years so I grew up surrounded by art and hobby supplies. I love all types of crafts but find my true crafting passion in papercrafts, ribbonwork, and sewing. I love to combine elements of all three into my projects.

I have been an instructor and project designer in the papercraft/scrapbook industry for more than 5 years. I have been fortunate to work for many top manufacturers including: Tim Holtz, Ranger Ink, BasicGrey, Pink Paislee, Therm O Web, ProvoCraft/Cricut, Prima Marketing, Glitz Design, and Tattered Angels. My work has been published in several books, magazines, and product catalogs and has been featured on television. My classes have been offered at stores, conventions, and online on both my own blog and at Big Picture Classes.

When I am not creating, I am a wife and mother of three who loves anything and everything shabby, chippy, and vintage. I love to scour flea markets for old treasures. I am also a fair weather gardener so if the spring breezes are blowing, you will probably find me playing in the dirt in my flower garden.

Ok— I SO CANNOT wait for her to come!!
