Black Friday Sale! We know that the Holiday season is right around the corner and everyone loves a good Black Friday Sale and The Doodlebug is no exception! Black Friday is on November 25th and the store will be open from 10am to 6:30pm with some great deals! Be sure to check your email and our Facebook page closer to the date for more information!!!

Retreat Recap!!! This year the 6th annual Doodlebug Retreat was the best yet! We had a record attendance, gave away tons of prizes, had an AMAZING turn out for the page contest on the final day, shared many laughs, made a ton of layouts and cards, wore some fabulous "Paper Hoarder" t-shirts, ate LOTS of great food, and got to visit with this year's beautiful scrapfairy, who just happened to be from the Islands! Hannah and I are still going through the evaluations, which help us to make each year better than the last! We truly appreciate all who attended and shared their thoughts with us! With this years retreat officially behind us we can begin planning for and looking forward to next years event!

Who's Ready to Swap? This time we will be swapping handmade Christmas Cards. Call or email by Saturday, Oct. 22nd to sign up and on Saturday, Nov. 19th we will swap cards! We will call to let you know how many people are signed up, and you will need to make 1 card for each person in the swap. Then on Nov. 19th we will swap!!! If you can't make it the day of the swap, simply drop off your cards no later than Friday, 18th in a bag with your name on it & we'll swap 'em for you. If you would like to sign up or have any questions, just call us at 812-482-4949 or email us at doodlebug@thedoodlebuginc.com

Demo Days at the Doodlebug!!! We know it can be difficult to set aside time for taking a class, so we are now offering product demonstrations on some of our newest, most exciting product lines!!! On October 6-8th we will be featuring Spellbinder Dies! The demo times will be: Thursday, Oct. 6th from 12-6pm, and on Friday, Oct. 7th from 12-6pm and again on Saturday, Oct. 8th from 11am-3pm. So, be sure to stop in and check out what we create with these beautiful dies! And then in November, we will be featuring the We R Memory Keepers Sew Ribbon Punch! The days will be: Thursday, Nov. 3rd from 12-6pm, Friday, Nov. 4th from 12-6pm and again on Saturday, Nov. 5th from 11am—3pm. These are both great opportunities to learn something new and exciting, and it's FREE – so be sure to stop in and see us!

A New Face at The Doodlebug! If you have been in lately, you may have noticed a new face behind the register!!! Our newest Doodlebug Girl is Amanda and she is fitting in like she has worked here for years!! Amanda is lives in the Loogootee area and has 2 adorable little Divas that she scrapbooks for! She has had her work featured on a few different blogs and we have some of her work/pages on display here in the store! Be sure to make Miss Amanda feel welcome the next time you are in and welcome her to our Doodlebug Family!

DID YOU KNOW....that you can take pictures of all of our pages, cards, and all of the other items that we have on display!! We work hard, so you don't have too! I know we have all seen and awesome page, so we bought all of the stuff to make it, only to forget what it looked like when we got home!! So, snap away my fellow scrappers...snap away!

Returning Guest Teachers

- ◆ Doodlebug Girl, Sarah Byrne, will be teaching an Advanced Techniques Unibind Mini Book featuring the Burlesque line from Fab-Scraps.
- ◆ Former Doodlebug girl, Lisa Wilson, will be back to teach a Silhouette Class on Saturday, Oct. 22nd from 10am– Noon.
- ◆ Know a crafty girl that should be listed here??? Have her bring in a sampling of her work and we will let her know the benefits of teaching for us!
- ◆ We would also like to welcome back, Paulette Bretz, our Cricut Guru, as she teaches a Creating w/ Cricut class on October 13th.
- ◆ AND– our newsletter would not be complete without some Ann Weyer cards!!! This time she will be creating 3 ADORABLE Halloween cards that you DO NOT want to miss! This is an early October class, so don't delay! (Oct. 6th)

Tween Pages Classes offered! We are again putting a call out there to all girls who want to make scrapbook all by and for themselves! We will be offering a “Tween Pages” class each month, where attendees will make two 12”X12” pages to put in their very own album. In these classes, kids will learn new techniques that they can use at home and get them excited about documenting those special memories in their lives. Be sure to check the class calendars for dates and times!

Holiday Gift Registry Available! Ok girls, it is almost that time of year again!!! Be sure to mark your calendars now to set some time aside and fill out that wish list!! We try to make it as easy as possible for you, so just come in, fill one out, give us the names of your “Santas” and leave the rest up to us! We will make sure that when that special someone comes in, that you get exactly what you want!!! YEAH– no more weird sweaters! To make things even better we will even gift wrap it for them, all they have to do is give it to you on Christmas! (The men love that part!) If you have filled one out in the past, feel free to update it

Product Spotlight: Tubes from SRM!

If you have not yet seen the cute Tubes that can be created with some stickers, die cuts and ribbon, then you are missing out! These “Tubes” come in 3 sizes: small, large and one called a Wand which is very popular for princess birthday parties! The cost on these “tubes” ranges from $0.75 to $1.19. I think that the small tubes filled with Candy Corn and peanuts or M&M's will make adorable Halloween treats for the trick-or-treaters that come to my front door! Angie Will, a customer and teacher, told me recently that she thinks she will fill the tubes with some M&M's, a tube of chap-stick, and some more M&M's and give them as gifts to her co-teachers. As soon as she said that, my mind went straight to Christmas teacher gifts this year! To see more Tube ideas click on or copy and paste the following link:

Operation Write Home I know that many of us would like to do more or do something to help all our those brave men and women who are serving overseas to keep us safe and sound here at home. Well, we would like to introduce you to “Operation Write Home.” OWH!

Operation Write Home began in 2007 with just a few cards made by friends on a message board; what began as an outlet for a hobby has become a much larger mission to help heroes keep in touch with home - and the effort has been joined by thousands of cardmakers!

OWH receives handmade cards donated by crafters across America (and beyond!). Cardmakers range in age, location, and level of skill; cards are provided by individuals and groups, schools and scouts, companies and churches. All have one primary thing in common: a desire to serve those who defend our nation!

Card Guidelines:

To provide the best possible service to our nation's heroes, we ask for our cardmakers to abide by the following guidelines.

No glitter. It's a safety hazard for our heroes, so no cards with any glitter that will flake off the card are accepted.

A2 sized cards. 4.25" x 5.5" - half a sheet of cardstock - fit the boxes most economically.

Line cards made with dark cardstock. If a pencil won't show up, add a liner.

Any quantity is JUST fine. One, a bunch, or a box full; each and every card is a treasure!

Some lumpiness is okay. Our heroes don't have to pay for letter mail, but that doesn't mean we can go wild with layers and embellishments.

Do NOT handwrite sentiments. Neither outside or inside the cards.

Use quality supplies. Computer paper, foamies, itty-bitty stickers, and gluesticks don't hold up to the rigors of the battlefield. It's ok to make fewer cards with better supplies - every card counts! :)

Card themes. Remember who's sending these: adults. No cards to Daddy, no "wish you were here," or party invitations; no explicit images or sentiments.

Absolutely no store bought. Neither complete cards, nor cards repurposing parts of them.

Desired general themes:

Birthday
Love
Thank you
Missing you
Thinking of you
Blank/no sentiment

For more information go to:
www.operationwritehome.org

Deadline to drop off your cards here for us to mail out is Nov. 30th..
